VOLUME XX—NO. 80 CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1919 TWO CENTS

METHODISTS WILL CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY NEXT SUNDAY

Will Cancel Church Debt at That Time with Funds Recently Raised

NOTED SPEAKER TO BE PRESENT

The congregation of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Charleroi will hold its anniversary celebration on Sunday next, September 14, and at the same time the church debt amounting to $5,900 will be cancelled.

At the morning service the Rev. Daniel Westphal of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate will make the address and as he is a speaker of note his appearance in the local church will no doubt be greeted by a large congregation.

In the evening a platform meeting will be held, at which time it is expected that all the former pastors of the congregation will be present to take part in he exercises.

The formal program for he day has not yet been announced. but no doubt it will contain a number of features interesting to the congregation.

Prior to the inauguration of the Centenary movement the official boards of the church began the movement for the liquidation of the church debt before making subscriptions to the Centenary fund. The campaign was short but effective, and before it ended almost enough money had been pledged to take up the mortgage. The efforts were continued, however, and some weeks ago the committee had enough pledges to carry out their plans. Now they propose a celebration in which all members of the congregation are to take part and which is expected to be a very enjoyable occasion. Announcement of further details will be made later.

BELLE VERNON COUPLE MARRIED THIS MORNING

Miss Margaret Knight and Morris Kenny. both prominent in Belle Vernon younger set, were married at 10 o'clock this morning in Belle Vernon at the home of Edward Knight, a brother of the bride, Rev. Perrin Baker, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Belle Vernon. and Rev. Taylor. jastor of the M. E. church at Newell officiating. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Knight home, after which the bride and groom, accompanied by a number of friends came to Charleroi, w here the newly married couple took the 12:40 train for Atlantic City.

Tillio Baker, "snapper" at the Charleroi mine, was painfully injured t his morning w hile at work in the mine by beng caught between cars and badly sqeezed about the chest. The ambulance was called and the man taken to his home at Washington avenue and Seventh street.

THE PEOPLES BANK IS OPENED AT MARIANNA

A new banking institution, known as the Peoples Bank, was opened at Marianna on Thursday. It occupies the bank building in Marianna which was formerly owned by the First National Bank and which failed a number of years ago. Since the Union Coal and Coke company has taken over the Marianna mines the town has enjoyed renewed prosperity.

FINE CONCERTS AT POPULAR PRICES

The coming season will witness the bringing to Charleroi of a series of world-famous concert stars in a series of popular concerts at popular prices, which will put Charleroi on the map musically, on a par with Abe Levinson, who will bring the Johnstown. Four concerts have been arranged for and contracts signed by Abe Levinson. whi will bring the concerts to Charleroi as an educational feature of the coming season. The first concert, which is scheduled for October 24th will present the celebrated Columbia Stellar Quartea; the second which will take place on November 17th, will offer Oscar Seagle, the distinguished American Baritone, together with Barbara Maurel. the Prima Donna of the Boston Opera Company. The third concert. set for March 19th, will have as its attraction the new Russian Violinist, Sascha Jacobsen, while the popular series will close on April 28th with a pount concert by Charles Harrisan, the leading American tenor, and Amparito Farrar, the California Soprano.

Announcements of the splendid concerts has already aroused a great amount of interest in Charleroi and confidence is expressed that local music lovers will enjoy the finest musical programs ever presented during this series of entertainments.

The Boy Scouts will sell tickets and will receive 10 per cent of the amount sold by them; also the Scout selling the greatest number will recive a 17-j Elgin watch, and the second highest a ring.

NEAR ACCIDENT AT NINTH AND FALLOWFIELD

A near accident which might have had serious results occurred at Ninth and Fallowfield about 10:30 this morning. An automobile coming down the hill approached the street crossing just as a car came up Fallowfield avenue. Neither driver nor motorman saw the other approaching and as a consequence the auto was pushed over into the school yard when hit a glancing blow by the street car. A few minutes after the accident happened the school children were dismissed for recess. Had it happened a few minutes later there might have been some one injured.

CANDIDATES OF THE CIVIC LEAGUE

The Civic League of Charleroi has announced a list of candidates whom it will support at the coming primary election on the 16th of this month. This list of officers concerns candidates for Council, members of the school board, borough assessor and constable.

As set forth in the announcement of the League, it is pointed out that the organizaion is a body of business and professional men, as well as laymen, who have banded together for the purpose of civic betterment; men will ing at all times to lend their support for the general improvement of local conditions. They set forth that they have investigated the various candidates for borough offices. and have set their mark of approval on those whose names appear in the advertisement now running in this paper. They claim that the men selected have been endorsed on account of their business ability and from the fact that they are not radical in their decisions, but men who will be fair-minded and just in all things that pertain to the office which they seek.

As specified in the announcement the candidates endorsed are as follows: For Council, Major H J. Repmar, Louis J. Mitchell, George Newton, James Stevenson; for school diretor, Thomas M Faddis, M. D., and Lee Showers; for assessor, H. S. Piersol; for constable. G. W. Corey.

To The Republican Voters of Charleroi

During the past forty years but two candidates seeking reelection, for the office of District Attorney, were defeated and it may t herefore be taken as the custom in Washington County to give a candidate for District Attorney a second term.

As an evidence of his fitness for the office and therefore an endorsement of his candidacy 55 of the 77 republican lawyers of the Washington County Bar have signed Mr. Baum's petition and are supporting him for a second term. Of the remaining 22 lawyers 10 are either candidates or are too much interesteed in other candidates or have other reasons that they would not sign the petition of anyone.

Since Mr. Baum has been in the office there has not been a year when the expenses incident to conducting the District Attorney's office have not been easily paid out of fines and costs collected. These revenues have increased each year so that during the year 1918 not only the expenses of conducting the District Attorney's office but the expense of running the whole Court of Quarter. Sessions, which was $40,000.00, was collected in fines and costs by the District Attorney with a surplus of $3,000.00.

Therefore, Mr. Voter, do you not think that Mr. Baum is entitled to be returned to the office of District Attorney? 79-t3-*

William W. Hawkins Seeks Republican Nomination for Director of the Poor

WILLIAM W. HAWKINS

William W. Hawkins of East Bethlehem township, better known as "Bill" Hawkins, is a candidate for renomination on the Republican ticket for the office of director of poor at the September primaries. Mr. Hawkins is one of the best known citizens of the eastern end of the county has always taken an active interest in public affairs in his own community and in the county is experienced in business and, it is generally agreed has made a capable and faithful public official. In conscientious devotion to the public business and service to his county in the important office of director of poor are reasons why Mr. Hawkins should be given another term his friends claim t hat he is entitled to it. 80-t1-*

SUPPER AND THEATRE PARTY FOR MEMBERS

There will be a meeting of the Elk's Team Captains at the Club House tomorrow night. Supper will be served at six o'clock. followed by a Theatre Party at the Coyle to see the "Fires of Faith." Chairman Warrensford trusts that every Team Captain will be present and on time as owing to the program of the evening it is desirous to serve supper at six sharp. Paul Willis, of Pittsburg. Provincial Business Representative of the Salvation Army and Rev. Harry R. Robertson, Campaign Manager will give short addresses.

ANNUAL REUNION OF THE HILL FAMILY HELD AT OAKLAND PARK

MANY DISTRICTS WERE NOT REPRESENTED

In compiling the registration cards of the school directors who attended the annual convention in Washington this week it was shown that 30 districts of the county were not represented. Only two townships were represented by a full turnout of the directors, one of these being Fallowfield. Among the districts not represented were North Charleroi, Charleroi, Donora and Monongahela.

Mrs. Alethea DeMain Mountsier

Mrs. Alethea DeMain Mountsier, aged 77 years, wife of Augustine R. Mountsier, died Sunday morning at two o'clock, at her home on Washington Avenue after a brief illness of two days. Mrs. Mountsier was born in Belle Vernon, Pa., where she made her home until 1891 when the family came to Charleroi, Pa.

Mrs. Mountsier was a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University and before her marriage was a successful teacher in the public schools of Belle Vernon, Pa. In 1868, she was united in marriage to Augustine R. Mountsier and to this union eight children were born; R. Rush Mountsier of Bellevue, Pa.; R. Carl Mountsier of Charleroi, Pa., and Robert Mountsier, now in the service with the American Food Commission in Constantinople, Turkey; three daughters, Mrs. John S. Henry, Jr., of Freemont, Ohio; Mrs. Albert J. Walker of Elizabeth, Pa.; Miss Mabel Mountsier of New York and two children who died in infancy. Silas DeMaine of St. Louis, Mo., abrother also survives her.

Mrs. Mountsier was a well known and most estimable woman, active in club and church circles, being the oldest member of the Athene Club, where she was held in high esteem by all the members. Being of exceptionally bright mind she was ever ready with valuable information and advice. She was a life-long member of the Methodist Episcopal church, being treasurer of the Missionary Society and a teacher in the Woman's Bible Class of the Charleroi M. E. church. Her devotion to her aged husband and family as well as numerous friends and acquaintances, will be sadly missed.

Funeral services will be conducted at the late home Tuesday at two p. m. with interment in the Belle Vernon cemetery, later, which will be private.

James Oates of Charleroi has been appointed Board Member for the fourth district, while William Hines is absent attending the convention of the United Mine Workers of America in Cleveland.

Miss Marie Liedy of Pitsburg was a week-end guest with Mrs. R. H. Parry of Shady a venue.

P. H. C. EUCHRE

The Social committee of the Charleroi Circle 303 P. H. C. will hold the first of a series of euchres Wednesday evening Sept. 10, 1919, in I. O. O. F. Hall. Tickets 25 cents. 79-t3*

Delightful Affair Held By Members of This Well Known Family

SPORTS FEATURED AFTERNOON

The fourth annual reunion of the Hill families was held at Oakland park on Saturday last, under the most favorable circumstances. The day was ideal. and members of the Hill "clan" gathered from near and far. By noon time it was estimated that fully two hundred descendants were present to do honor to the festivitie occasion.

The "spread" at noon-time, which always figures so conspicuously on these occasions, was all that the eye could wish to look upon or the needs of the inner man require. The table was laden with the choicest, and supplied in the most liberal manner. It was d uring this enjoyable feature that the President, Charles M. Hill, of Charleroi, called the assembly to order and introduced the Rev. W. H. Howard, who in a most felicitous manner assumed the duties of chairman and toastmaster for the occasion. The minutes of the reunion of 1918 were read and approved, after which an election for officers took place, when Charles M. Hill was elected President, J. T. Hill, secretary and John O'Neil treasurer.

A partial honor roll of members of the Hill families who had served in the world war was read, and will be completed for the next reunion.

The historian, Thomas Hill read a very interesting account of the pioneers of the Hill family who emigrated to this country in 1700 from County Down, Ireland, as well as featuring e vents of more recent date in the way of deaths, births and marriages, all of which will appear in the regular m inutes of the reunions.

One of the most pleasing features of the occasion was the readings given by Mrs. Myrtle Blackburn of North Charleroi, who delighted all by t he selections rendered. She responded to several encores.

After s inging "Blest be the Tie," and a short prayer by the Rev. W. Hill Weaver the business meeting adjourned to meet the first Saturday in September, 1920.

A program of sports, arranged by Miss Pearl Hill, was then taken up for the afternoon and heartily enjoyed b yall present. At a late h our members of the clan turned their faces homeward, after having spent one of the most delightful reunions since the organization of the association.

RIGHT OF REVOLUTION LOST.

Opponents of the league covenant contend that under the language of Article 11 the council will assume jurisdiction over internal rebellions and revolutions, as it does in Article 10 over "external aggressions." Mr. Taft sees no soundness in that argument. If that construction is admitted, he says, "it is very strange that the fundamental right of each member of the league is to bring to the attention of the assembly or the council under Article 11 only those circumstances which disturb international relations and the peace and the good understanding between nations.

The exact language of Article 11 gives a member nation the right to bring before the assembly or council "any circumstance whatever affecting international relations which threatens to disturb either the peace of the good understandoing beween nations upon which peace depends." It appears to be clear from that sentence that a circumstance does affect international relations when it is so declared by any member, and the league must forthwith assume jurisdiction. In other words a member state may insist that a revolution in an adjoining country affects its own welfare, which doubtless would be the truth. Under the terms of the covenant the league is bound to take action, and the right of subject peoples to revolt is therefore subject entirely to the consent of the new super-government.

CHARLEROI BEATS ELLSWORTH TEAM

Charleroi defeated the Ellsworth team in a close game on Saturday last by the score of 3 to 2. This was the first game in the series that the locals were able to defeat Ellsworth on the home grounds, although it looked for a time as if Ellsworth would get away with the bacon.

The visitors scored two runs in the first inning, Haywood making a safe hit after Russell had gone out, Dillon gollowing with a three-bagger, and he was pushed over the plate with a single by Kunosh. No other scores were made until the seventh inning. In that frame the visitors were dangerous, as with two on bases and one down the locals executed a double play which killed off their hopes. Krepps, the visiting pitcher, was mainly responsible for the double, as he ran to third when it was occupied, and was an easy out after Russell had been put out at first.

In the latter part of the inning Charleroi got its bats to working and with good, consecutive hitting put three runs over the plate, the feature being ahome run by Kuhn. The game on Saturday concluded the series with Ellsworth. Charleroi winning three and Ellsworth two.

DEATH TAKES AGED MONESSEN WOMAN

Mrs. Mary E. Newcomer aged 73 years, died at her home 426 Reed avenue, Monessen this morning, from the infirmities of age. She is survived by three sons, J. E., L. O., and W. W. Newcomer. THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD

Came to this Woman after Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Restore Her Health

Ellensburg, Wash.—"After I was married I was not well for a long time and a good deal of the time was not able to go about. Our greatest desire was to have a child in our home and one day my husband came back from town with a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and wanted me to try it. It brought relief from my troubles. I improved in health so I could do my housework; we now have a little one, all of which I owe to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. O. S. JOHNSON, R. No. 3, Ellensburg, Wash.

There are women everywhere who long for children in their homes yet are denied this happiness on account of some functional disorder which in most cases would readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such women should not give up hope until they have given this wonderful medicine a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of 40 years experience is at your service.

OLD STEAMER IS STILL IN COMMISSION

The steamer K. W. Field, formerly the Ironsides of Gray's Iron Line, now in service on the Ohio river, is the oldest boat in commission on western waters. The Field was built in 1869 and was used by its original owners in towing model barges loaded with steel rails and other iron products from Pittsburg to Bird's Point on the Mississippi river. The boat was taken over by the river combine 20 years ago and was used in coal transportation. It is now owned by the Island Creek Coal company and is in service on the lower Ohio.

NOTICE

I will buy old rags of any kind. Will pay two cents a pound and one cent a pound for old bags and bones.

DEPENDABILITY

is an attribute the aggressive business man looks for in his assistants. Those who possess it in fullest measure mount steadily to the top.

In his banking connection, too, the business man demands this all-important qualification.

Eloquent evidence of this institution's ability to successfully meet this demand is the number of commercial patrons it serves.

If you, Mr. Business Man, seek a dependable affiliation

"HIS MAJESTY, THE AMERICAN"

Here's a picture for you—a romance with a regular hero, and such a hero: He cleans up everything from New York to the Mexican Border and then hops to Europe to show them how to handle a revolution. Can he do it? Well—you know Doug: Eight Reels.
